DISTRICT IMPROVEMENTS.

Effect of the Delay in Passing the Appropriation Bill.

The late date at which the District appropriation bill was passed will defer many improvements till next spring that would otherwise be made before the winter sets in. The delay will be considerable granite block pavements that will not be put down until the spring, because the blocks cannot be had. The District buys these blocks and pays for having them laid. The Commissioners could not make the contracts for the blocks, because the appropriation was available and consequently they were too late to get all the blocks they desired.

Nearly all of the sheet asphalt pavement will be put down, as Mr. H. L. Cranford has already completed his contract. The asphalt pavement on Fourteenth street road will not be put down this fall, in consequence of the delay on the part of the W. & G. R. R. Company in removing their tracks to the middle of the roadway.

These tracks do not occupy the east side of the road, and the company claims that as they got permission to lay the tracks in their present position, the District has no right to order their removal unless the expense is borne by the District.

The long-needed asphalt pavement is being laid on New York avenue. In order not to block travel, that part of the street on one side of the tracks is paved in advance of the other. This is one of the finest avenues in the city, but in the spring, when the races are held here, the road has been atrocious, as everyone who drives to Ivy City can testify.

Surveyor Forsyth has submitted to the Commissioners a form of a blank to be adopted in subdivisions of land. There has been a wonderful increase in the number of subdivisions recorded recently and their recommendation is made to facilitate the work by having the former printed, instead of making them by hand.

Punishing Footpads.
Yesterday Mrs. Emma Benton was passing along New Jersey avenue southeast a couple of young negro men approached her and one of them snatched her pocketbook from her hand and ran. He was chased by people along the street down to the car stables at the foot of Capitol Hill, where he was caught by one of the employees, named Snyder. Later the negro who was with him before the pocketbook was snatched, was arrested, and both of them were locked up in the South Washington Station House.

Chances for Democratic Postmasters.
Postmaster General Dickinson, says the Baltimore Sun, is preparing a statement showing the number of Presidential postmasters in the various States whose commission will expire between now and the 4th of March. The object of this is said to be for the purpose of lowering President Cleveland to appoint Democrats, so that they will be hold-overs under the next administration. This action is supposed to be based on the old theory that President-elect Harrison will permit all meritorious Democratic postmasters to serve out their respective terms, and that Cleveland did in the case of hundreds of Republican postmasters.

The Graham-Glover Case Dismissed.
The case of Congressman Glover, charged with perjury, by his private secretary, James H. Graham, was called up in the Police Court this morning, and dismissed for want of prosecution. Prosecutor Shillingford read a card sent him from the Metropolitan Hotel by Graham, in which he said that he was too ill to come to court, and asked that the case be further continued. Mr. Glover was in court, and ready for trial. The case was a charge of perjury growing out of the warrant sworn out by Mr. Glover for Mr. Graham's arrest on a charge of disorderly conduct.

A Policeman Shot in the Leg.
Policeman King shot himself in the leg last night. He had just come into the Eighth Precinct Station House about 11 o'clock, and his revolver dropped from his pocket and was discharged as it struck the floor. The bullet entered his left leg below the knee, inflicting a serious wound.

Public Printer Benedict's Intentions.
The report now going the rounds of the press to the effect that Public Printer Benedict will resign his commission on the 4th of next March and leave at once, whether the resignation is accepted or not, is denied. The Public Printer said this morning that he had made no such statement. His resignation, he said, will be ready whenever called for by Mr. Harrison.

The Experts Examining the Tunnel.
It was stated to-day at the Capitol that the mechanical experts appointed to examine the tunnel will not be ready to report before the first week in December.

Catarrh Cured.
A clergyman after years of suffering from that loathsome disease, Catarrh, and vainly trying every known remedy, at last found a recipe which completely cured and saved him from death. Any sufferer from this dreadful disease sending a card addressed to the proprietor to Prof. J. A. Lawrence, 25 Warren street, New York City, will receive the recipe free of charge.

WIDENING ITS SCOPE.

The Riding Academy to be Owned by a Stock Company—Board of Directors.

The Riding School has not only come to stay, but it is extending. A stock company is now being organized, with the ultimate object of extending the property and widening the scope of operations. The stock will be placed at $100 a share, and but five shares sold to any one person, so as to bring in as many shareholders as possible (thereby giving each a personal monetary interest in the school) and to prevent any one gaining a controlling interest for the purpose of private speculation. Every shareholder will, with his family, enjoy the privileges of a subscriber without being obliged to pay the subscription fee; in addition, receiving a dividend estimated at from six to twenty-five per cent. per annum.

In addition to, and without interfering in the least with the riding school proper, an immense horse exchange, conducted after the manner of Tattersall's, of London, is contemplated. A specialty will be made of furnishing horses for carriages for as short or as long a time as desired—for an hour or year. This is a custom in vogue abroad and has been very successful. A fine lot of hunters and saddle horses will also be kept on hand for sale or hire, and their equipment will be the best procurable.

A number of military organizations have already begun drilling at the school, and will make it their headquarters. Their connection with it will greatly increase its revenues. The ground in the rear of the school, a hundred feet long, will be built on the ring being extended, and quarters for the military companies being added. The school already occupies 13,000 square feet, and with this additional 10,000 will become the largest institute of its kind in the world, and one that Washington can feel justly proud in claiming. Combining under one roof all that it intends to, there will be nothing in the world to compare with it. There isn't another city in the United States where such an establishment would have an equal chance of success, but the large number of wealthy people here, the greater amount of leisure of those people of wealth and of those of even moderate means, the fact of this being the social and political center, the confidence in its brilliant future, and such and such other facts, that it is in the very center of a horse-loving community and the love for horses is contagious, all tend to promise undoubted success.

A glance at its board of directors also tends to establish confidence in the feasibility of such an undertaking, large as it is. The well-known lawyer, Calderon Carlsie; Anthony Pollock, lawyer and millionaire; Robert Nevill, a wealthy Maryland stock-raiser; Gen. Albert Ordway; Capt. Thomas W. Symons, Linden Kent; H. R. Dulany and John F. Wagonman, both real estate men; Col. J. D. Brown, of New York; Thomas J. Flack, and Audick Palmer, millionaire and real estate man, comprise the board, and a heavy one it is, as far as capital and shrewd business sense and foresight is concerned.

Col. Brown, the present owner of the school, will be in charge as manager, and if the present programme is carried out Washington can toss its cap in the air for delight at having at least one really big, fine establishment of its own.

It is also the intention of the management to give a spring horse show every year similar to the National Horse Show at Madison Square Garden, New York, to draw together in competition the large breeders of the country and in this way stimulate the interest in the equine race.

The Express Company Stands the Loss.
Although unable to learn how the silver was recently taken from the bag sent from New Orleans to the Treasury the Adams Express Company has paid to the Government $1,400 to cover the loss. The officers of the express company are somewhat indignant over what they regard as the premature publication of the discovery of the theft, on the theory that if the persons concerned in the matter had not thus been informed of the discovery of their operations they might easily have been detected in another attempt to repeat the act of exchanging shot for the silver contents of the bag in which the money was transported.

His Drunkenness Saves Him.
Judge Montgomery to-day granted a new trial to William H. Walter, convicted of assaulting Sergeant Falvey, with intent to kill. The defense offered at the trial was that Walter was so far under the influence of liquor as to be unable to form any intent to kill. With the motion for a new trial, submitted by Gen. S. S. Henkle and W. K. Duhamel, were affidavits making an additional showing as to his intoxicated condition.

The Boys Acquitted.
The jury in the case of Leonard Finnem and Edward Cunningham charged with house-breaking in entering the restaurant of Geo. Hoffman and stealing $100, was locked up all last night. This morning they announced that they had agreed and rendered a verdict of not guilty. The principal witness against them was Edward Queen, and it was claimed by the defense that Queen was the man who took the money.

Turned Over to Maryland.
Randolph Carry, colored, was turned over to Sheriff N. C. Darnall, of Prince George's County, by Chief Justice Bingham this morning, on a requisition. He is wanted for arson, in burning a barn belonging to Albert Gleason, the loss being $7,000.

To Philadelphia in 34 Hours.
This is the time made by the B. & O. Limited, the fastest train ever scheduled between this city and Philadelphia. The B. & O. track is as well built as any on the Continent, and the run is made without difficulty.

Equitable C. B. Association.
This month the first payment is due on the new issue. Shares, $2.50 per month. Shares can be taken daily from 9 a. m. to 4:30 p. m. Equitable Building, 1008 F street northwest. John Joy Edson, secretary.

AMUSEMENTS NEXT WEEK.

Albough's-Cocquelin-Hading.

The famous French representatives of comedy, M. Cocquelin and Mme. Hading, supported by a superior French dramatic company, will begin a week's engagement next Monday night at Albough's, under the management of Messrs. Henry E. Abbey and Maurice Gray. The repertoire is as follows: Monday, M. Cocquelin, "La Joie Fait Peur," two monologues, "La Vie" and "La Naufrage," recited by M. Cocquelin, and "Les Precedents" recited by Mme. Hading. Tuesday, M. Cocquelin, "Le Maître de Forges." Wednesday, M. Cocquelin and Mme. Hading, "L'Aventurier." Thursday, M. Cocquelin, "Les Surprises du Divorce." Friday, Cocquelin-Hading, "From Front." Saturday matinee, Cocquelin-Hading, "Camille." Saturday evening, Cocquelin-Hading, "Don Cesar de Bazan." Prices: $2.50, $3, $1.50 and $1, according to location.

The National—"Monte Cristo."

Mr. James O'Neill will appear next week at the National in Charles Fechter's dramatization of Dumas' "Monte Cristo." The production is not new, but the interest to it always is. The Nashville American says of it: "His magnificent scenery, electric lights and stage mechanism and the no-less-to-be-praised splendid costumes add—these, added to a company of ladies and gentlemen well worthy of the star, and the stage, leave but little more to be said. Mr. O'Neill kept the hearers wrapt in attention. The naturalness of his calm demeanor or the outburst of his passion keeps the audience away from admiration to awe. His interpretation of the character is truly grand."

Harris' Bijou—Mr. Oliver Byron.

Mr. Oliver Byron and Miss Kate Byron in their melodrama entitled "The Inside Track," are the attractions for the week of November 19 at Harris' Bijou. It is some years since Mr. Byron has been seen in Washington, and it is safe to predict that our theatre-goers will accord him the hearty reception he so richly deserves. His character of Harry "Flash" in "The Inside Track," is said to be admirably. He is supported by the charming artist, Miss Kate Byron, whose impersonation of Jerry "Friedie," the long race girl, is one of the most artistic performances of the day. The scenic effects are all new and novel and very elaborate. The combination of plays that have been with Mr. Byron so long will be seen with him here. They are justly known as the famous Byron Combination. The usual Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday matinees will be given for ladies, and there will be no advance in the ticket prices.

Kernan's—Gus Hill.

Gus Hill's World of Novelties is the world of fun and interest at Kernan's next week. A few points from the great bill are as follows: Fisher Bros., intrepid flying trapeze artists; Ester and William, the song and dance duo; Frank O'Brien, eccentric comedian; Luigi Meloro, challenge change artists; Newcomb trio, musical phenomenon; John E. Drew, character artist; Mlle. Alberta, queen of the wire; Wilson and Bravard, character sketch couple, and Gus Hill, the champion.

Manuscript Notes.

Mr. George L. Smith, manager for James O'Neill Monte Cristo Co. sends around a photograph of his star, which is a comfort to look at. "Jack" Haverly and W. S. Cleveland, under Cleveland's management, are out in some magnificent printing announcing the winter season of the Madison Minstrels, the very greatest on the road.

Voting at the Fencibles Fair.

The fair of the National Fencibles, now in progress at the National Rifles Hall, will close on the 22nd inst. The following is a list of the prizes to be voted for and the candidates therefor:

Clock for Restaurateurs—Gerstenberg & Reuter. Wm. Ryan, Horace Kirkwood, L. Newmyer.

On Wednesday next "Huck" Taylor, the king of the country, and "Mule" Jones, the manager of the Wild West show, will visit the Fencibles Fair, and Mr. Taylor has kindly promised to take charge of the spinning Jenny that evening. The Fencibles owe this to the courtesy of Mr. E. B. Lafferty.

New Trains on the B. & O.

On November 18 new trains will be placed in service on the B. & O. R. R., and the following schedule established via that line between Washington and Philadelphia: Leave Washington 8:10 a. m., 2:05 p. m., 4:30 p. m. and 11:30 p. m. All trains daily. The 8:10 a. m. and 4:30 p. m. trains will be the fastest ever scheduled between this city and Philadelphia. The superb track of the B. & O. R. R. renders this run easy of accomplishment. These trains will be equipped with magnificent new Pullman Parlor Cars, built expressly for this service. All the above trains will carry Parlor or Sleeping Cars. The 11:30 p. m. train will be provided with Pullman Sleeping Cars for Philadelphia, to which passengers will be admitted at any time after 9 p. m., and in which they can remain undisturbed at Philadelphia until 7 a. m. An excellent restaurant has been established in the handsome new B. & O. Depot at Philadelphia, in which choice meals can be procured.

SACKVILLE'S GOODS TO BE SOLD.

Valuable Silver Plate, Wines and Liquors go Under the Hammer Next Week.

On Monday a great sale will take place at the British Legation, the first one since the present fine building was built. Sir Edward Thornton was the first occupant of it, and as he was not a man of fortune, there was little except some carriages and horses to sell. Lord Sackville, though, has some very handsome things which he does not wish to carry back to Knoll Park, which is crowded with plate and bronzes, pictures and bric-a-brac.

Among the more valuable things to be sold is a service of silver plate, for fifty persons. It is ornamented with the Sackville arms and initial, but an aspiring American family whose name began with an S could appropriate the whole thing. There is also a choice collection of old wines and liquors to be sold. There are no pictures worth speaking of. The Government furnished the legation, but every Minister, of course, adds to the outfitings such articles as he fancies. Foreign Minister's sales are great events in Washington when they occur. It is a kind of a fad to own things that come from these sales.

Georgetown Notes.

The improvement to Prospect avenue is nearly completed, and sidewalks have been laid as far as Thirty-fifth street. When completed this thoroughfare will be a very handsome one.

A branch of the W. C. T. U. has been organized at Fort Meyer, and is known as the Cavalry Branch. It is in a flourishing condition and has a large membership among the soldiers at the post. A very enjoyable entertainment was given by the members on Thursday last.

Temperature and condition of water at 7 a. m.: Great Falls, temperature, 53; condition at north connection, 4; condition at south connection, 36; distributing reservoir, temperature, 52; condition at inlet gate-house, 36; condition at outlet gate-house, 36.

Ellen Clancy, a white woman, aged 64 years, was arrested last night by Officer Lahna, charged with vagrancy.

The schooner Kitty Ann arrived to-day with 1,300 bushels of wheat consigned to J. G. & J. M. Waters. Wheat sold on "Change" at $1.08 1/2.

The Men's Club, organized under the auspices of St. John's Church, is now in a prosperous condition, and the membership is rapidly increasing. The club-house is furnished with plenty of reading material and many pleasant means of amusement. The average nightly attendance is about thirty.

Republicans in the Departments.

In the Departments here, there are 10,930 employees. The best estimate that can be obtained of the appointments made since the 4th of March, 1885, is 3,450. This will leave 7,480 Republican office-holders. So it is easy to see that they will have hold of the hottest end of the removal poker in order to allow Gen. Harrison to make room for his friends.

Change of Schedule on the B. & O. R. R., taking effect November 18—Chicago vestibule limited train, now leaving at 10:55 a. m., will leave on and after to-morrow at 8:55 a. m. daily. Limited express for Cincinnati and St. Louis will leave as at present, 3 p. m. For other changes see schedule in Sunday papers.

The Record Lowered.

The B. & O. Limited Express Trains from Washington to Philadelphia are the fastest ever run in regular service between here and the Quaker City. Unlike other lines the B. & O. charges no extra fare for superior service.
